Application for Sarah H. Moss Fellowship
Applications due by 5:00pm Eastern on May 1, 2020

All application materials may be submitted electronically as a single PDF file titled LastName_SarahMoss2020 (beginning with page 3 of this document) to the Sarah H. Moss Selection Committee Chair, megan.mittelstadt@uga.edu, by May 1, 2020.

Applicants are encouraged to consult with respective department heads and senior faculty members in preparing proposals to be submitted to the Committee. The Committee reviewing applications for Sarah H. Moss Fellowships encourages candidates to apply for other fellowships before or at the same time they are applying for Sarah H. Moss Fellowships.

1) Application form (page 3 of this document)

2) Curriculum vitae

3) Plan of study (not to exceed four pages)
   Section A: Brief description of the plan of study applicant desires to pursue if awarded this fellowship
   Section B: Applicant’s relevant experience and achievements to date
   Section C: Purpose and aims of proposed study, research, or scholarship

4) Itemized budget of the costs of attending the institution/location during the time period indicated. Indicate the amount of total funding which applicant will receive from other sources (grants, travel awards, stipends, etc.). Indicate and total the line items that are being requested from Sarah Moss funding (not to exceed $10,000).
   a. Procedural update, effective July 1, 2019: Funds requested for the faculty members’ own travel and research supplies must be listed separately in the itemized budget from funds requested for partner and dependent travel, childcare, etc. This is because there are two distinct reimbursement procedures for these funds:
      i. Funds awarded for the faculty members’ own travel and research supplies will be reimbursed directly through the (no taxes withheld) upon submission of Travel and Expense statements (OneSource), which must include receipts or credit card statements.
      ii. Other reimbursements, including funds awarded for partner and dependent travel, childcare, etc., are considered taxable income to the UGA employee and must be run through payroll as “Special Pay.” Receipts do not need to be provided to account for charges being reimbursed through Special Pay – however, the award committee must provide a letter certifying the amount awarded to each recipient through the Sarah Moss Fellowship for Special Pay reimbursement.
5) Submitted directly to the Committee Chair: Letter of support from applicant’s department head and/or academic dean indicating applicant’s long-term promise as a faculty member at UGA and indicating, if necessary, that applicant may be given a leave of absence to pursue this plan of study.

6) Submitted directly to the Committee Chair: A minimum of two and maximum of five additional letters of recommendation from persons qualified to report on applicant’s academic interests and capacities. Applicants are encouraged to submit letter(s) of invitation or support from the proposed host location/institution.
